

Statistics compiled by the Agricultural Extension Service indicate that 1944 production costs in 115 California orange groves were approximately 400 dollars per acre; nearly $100 greater than the 14-year average for most of the same groves.

Back from Service, Many Take Up Church Responsibilities

Now that many of the service men have returned, the Senior Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of Bethany church has been re-organized and many fine activities planned for the coming year.

During the past few months, Bob Colt returned from the Army Air Corps in Nebraska; Bob Evans arrived from Leyte; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. List came home from Florida; Tom Mitchell was discharged from the Army; Dave Sheriff was released from the Navy in Minnesota, and Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace returned from Seattle.

Two special business meetings have been held. Officers for the year are: David Wallace, president; David Sheriff, vice-president; Barbara Wallace, secretary; C. J. List, treasurer; Bob Colt, look-out chairman; Jean Brooks, missionary chairman; Dorothy Moore, prayer-meeting chairman; Muriel Fitchette, social chairman. The first feat of the alive new group was to capture the Honor Banner for attendance at the Christian Endeavor Division Sing this month at the Lincoln Avenue Presbyterian church in Pasadena. Plans are being made to attend the Pasadena Division Spring Banquet in March en masse.

A Valentine party at the Wallace home in Monrovia is being planned, and all young people between 20 and 38 years who are interested in Christian Endeavor are cordially invited.

A special feature of the newly organized society is a well-staffed nursery so young couples with small children can attend. Guest speaker for the past Sunday evening was Miss Jean Buchanan, a missionary from India, who spoke of the work there and showed interesting pictures.

Tom Mitchell will be the speaker for next Sunday. He will speak on the book of Philimon.

EASTERN STAR ENJOYS VALENTINE PARTY

Following the regular work at the Order of Eastern Star Monday evening when Mrs. Lella Roberts presided in place of Worthy Matron Mrs. Dola Black, the refreshment hour proved to be a Valentine party with Mrs. Lella Embree and Mrs. Orrella Stittman hostesses. Visitors for the evening were Sadie Crowell, Worthy Matron of the Melita Chapter, and Evelyn Hays of the Pasadena Chapter. Next Wednesday the local Chapter will attend the Pasadena lodge when the Worthy Grand Matron makes the official visit of the 59th District Chapter.

REV. KARL TIEDEMANN AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

On Sunday, February 17th, at 11:00 a.m. the Rev. Karl Tiedemann, O. H. C., is to be the guest preacher at the Choral Eucharist. Dr. Tiedemann, who is on the West Coast for several preaching engagements, will conduct a school of corporate prayer with informal services each evening at 7:00 p.m. for three days, February 17, 18, 19.

The visiting cleric was a visitor to Sierra Madre parish a year ago and is cordially welcomed back for the second in the series of addresses. The public is cordially invited by the rector to attend the services.

V. F. W. DANCE

The Dance Committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is meeting with enthusiastic response from the public in the sale of tickets for the Dance to be given Saturday evening, February 23rd at the Woman's club house. Inasmuch as the proceeds are to go for the purchase of recreation equipment and night baseball equipment everyone seems anxious to not only enjoy the dance but help in the new project.

The committee on arrangement is William Brown, Jimmie Kellier and Lawrence Perry.

The National Association of Methodist Hospitals and Homes is composed of institutional and individual memberships of the denomination's institutions, and works in co-operation with the Board of Hospitals and Homes. The Board is made up of 23 members, and serves as an agency through which the Church can "coordinate and give helpful guidance to the institutional Christian philanthropic and social service interests operating in the name of the Church." Together the two agencies aim to "lift the spiritual, scientific and financial standards" of the denominations' hospitals and homes for the aged, children, working girls and young men.

During the two-day convention, consideration will be given to matters dealing with operational problems in an atomic age, current status of hospital legislation, organized labor trends and nursing associations, training of hospital administrators and President Truman's proposed social security program and its affect on the voluntary hospital and Blue Cross plan.

FAMOUS FEBRUARY DATES

February is the month of great birthdays as well as being the season of the century-old tradition of lace-edged valentines. This year we will want to put forth a special effort to make these birthday holidays something to be remembered. There is no better way of celebrating these February dates than by serving heart-shaped salads, Lincoln logs, and special desserts. Then even the most simple meal takes on a festive appearance that makes it seem like something extra special.

VALENTINE SALAD

8-8 canned pear halves
Red vegetable coloring
1/2 c. chopped dates
1/2 c. chopped nut meats
1 pk. cream cheese
1 lb. cottage cheese
Salad greens

Drain juice from pears; add vegetable coloring to syrup (the amount used depending upon deepness of color desired); return pears to syrup and let stand in refrigerator over night. Combine dates, nut meats and cream cheese. Drain pears again, and dry well. Stuff with the mixture. Place pears, rounded side up, on curly endive, and surround with cottage cheese. Serve as individual salads. The effect is that of a Valentine trimmed in lace. Serves 8.

CHERRY DUMPLINGS

1 c. sugar
1 tsp. cornstarch
2 c. liquid (juice and water)
2 tsp. butter or margarine
1 recipe biscuit dough
2 c. canned red cherries
1/2 c. chopped nut meats

Mix sugar and cornstarch; add liquid; bring to a boil; boil 1 minute. Let stand while preparing biscuit dough. Turn dough out on floured board and knead lightly for 20 strokes. Roll into an oblong about 1/4" thick. Spread with butter; add cherries, well drained, and nuts; roll like jelly roll; press edges together well. Cut into 1 1/2" slices; place in greased pan; pour syrup over the top. Bake at 425° for 25 minutes. Makes 8 dumplings.

TRICORNS

1/2 c. shortening
1/2 c. sugar
1 egg
1/2 tsp. vanilla
1 1/2 c. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. salt

Create shortening and sugar together. Add egg and vanilla, beating thoroughly. Sift flour and salt together and add, mixing only enough to combine ingredients. Chill. Roll out 1/8" thick. Cut with round 3" cookie cutter and place on greased baking sheet. Place small amount of cherry filling in the center of each round of dough. With a spatula, lift 3 sides of the round over the filling. Pinch edges together, shaping into tricorn. Bake at 375° 12 minutes. Makes 2 dozen small cookies.

San Gabriel to Present Mission Play

City Secures Rights to Play. Will be Given in Playhouse

The City of San Gabriel now holds exclusive rights to produce the famed Mission Play, written by the late John Steven McGroarty, state poet laureate, following the signing of a license agreement at a city council meeting last night.

The agreement was signed by Miss Margaret McHale, McGroarty's niece and present owner of the copyright; Mayor Albert Grieb and Carl Grindler, city administrator.

WHAT'S PROVIDED
Terms of the agreement provide the play shall be presented at the Mission Playhouse within a year following official declaration of the end of World War II.

All scenery, costumes and equipment of the play, held in storage since the last production, becomes city property.

A non-profit citizens organization will be entrusted with the actual production of the play. Members of the committee will be appointed following a series of discussions and are expected to include several persons widely known in the fields of California history, culture and traditions.

One of the most pressing problems to be faced, will be raising the necessary funds to finance the start of the production, after which the play is expected to be self-supporting. Means of raising the funds are being studied by the committee, which feels the tremendous popularity of the Mission Play in the past will cause many individuals and organizations to wish to assist in reestablishing this romantic memorial to the early days of California.

It is recalled that the play had a continuous run of 20 years here and was seen by more than 2,000,000 persons.

The Mission Playhouse was built expressly for the purpose of producing McGroarty's drama, and is undergoing complete renovation, including the installation of new seats and an air-conditioning system.

PICNICS

Montana mid-winter reunion Sunday, February 17th also in Sycamore Park.

LADY ASTOR COMES HOME . . . Pictured against a backdrop of a British flag at the pier, following their arrival in New York City, are Lord and Lady Astor. The viscountess, American-born former member of parliament, is en route to Virginia to visit relatives. When asked her plans, Lady Astor stated that she "might run for congress." Matter of lack of American citizenship stands in her way at present, however.

NAVY'S COACH . . . Capt. Thomas J. Hamilton, who has just been appointed head football coach of the U. S. naval academy. This will be his second coaching tour at Annapolis, having coached in 1934, 1935 and 1936.

For the third straight year the nation's 1945 citrus crop was larger than in the previous year. In the past crop year 291,000 tons of oranges from Sunkist groves were diverted to by-products plants. This amounted to 17 per cent of the crop, which ran heavily to small sizes particularly in the Valencia season.

The frog TALKS about ROBERTS MARKET and Things!

If Life an empty bubble be,
How sad for those who cannot see
The rainbow in the bubble!
—F. Locker-Lampson.

(You know, I think the clay pipe and coffee cup presently making "Blackey" Cinders of comic strip fame such a financial genius are being used by said "Blackey" only for blowing bubbles. After all, the stock market is a "bubble" affair, isn't it?)

GOSH, FOLKS, THIS PROBLEM of retail sales is worse now than during the War! Strikes seem to be responsible for our major shortages in food, clothing and durables. However, I will attempt to confine my observations to food. For instance, the largest supplier of coffee on the Pacific Coast has been tied up since November by a machinists' strike in San Francisco. In spite of this, and other strike-produced scarcities, there is plenty of food for everyone!

RETURNING SERVICE MEN are discomfited by the apparent surplus of some items and the equally apparent lack of other desirable things. John Dyer (a veteran of my department), just back from E T O, reports 5c candy bars at 20c, cigarettes at 40c, and so forth. He says the boys are all hungry for milk, many of them not having seen any in Europe for months. So take it easy, folks. Buy only what you need. The supply is not equal to the demand!

MY GOOD FRIEND, DEANE DAMON, whom you will remember as Manager of my Vegetable Department for several years, is also back in town. Another good guy who lost a couple years fighting mosquitoes and killing Japs! The next time I see him I will ask about the black market price on parsnips in Japan.

IF I CAN GET CURLY out of my fine frog's hair for a moment, I intend to talk about vegetables! He insists that I recommend for Sunday breakfast: pick pure POINT LOMA Tomato Juice, Flottl Kadota Figs in heavy syrup or Bordo fancy segments of Florida Grapefruit. And Vogt's Original Philadelphia Scapple. Just add waffles, biscuits or toast with Buchanan's Pure Honey—and oh, boy! These are all excellent products and worthy of your table, sez he! He also whispers that we have plenty of crackers for you.

YES, WE HAVE ALL THESE THINGS TODAY. Tomorrow being another day—well, we will have something else!

NOW ABOUT ME: Fancy, fresh green peas are now at their best. Solid, tasty Coachella Valley Tomatoes are here again in the second bin from the end. After the dull Mexican tomatoes we have been forced to sell you, your taste buds will revel in these when thrown (or gently arranged) together with your other salad likes such as watercress, radishes, green onions, romaine or what-not. There is space to mention just one other thing in my Department: No-Needa Sugar Grapefruit, large, solid and sweet! An outstanding source of Vitamin C (for curly hair?), but also high in B1 and B2. An interesting fruit, known in China 3000 years ago, but intensively developed only since it was introduced in Florida some 200 years ago. (Of course California fruit is much better!) The name "grapefruit" was probably given it because it grows on the tree in clusters like grapes.

LES TELLS ME THERE IS PLENTY of meat of almost all kinds in his Meat Department.

PLEASE DON'T FORGET THAT this big, little store is bounded on the east by the fireless, but not caustic, Pickett Service Station; and on the west by the breadless, but not cakeless, Wistaria Bake Shop!

RIDICULOUS: Joe and Ray sat down to eat their lunch. Ray began to unwrap a package some 18 inches long. "What's that," asked Joe. "My wife's away," said Ray. "So I made myself a pie." "A bit long, ain't it?" asked Joe. "Long? Sure it's long. It's rubarb."

So Long—
THE GREEN FROG.

Thomas-Shippey Wedding Sunday at Church of the Ascension

Nearly 300 friends gathered at the Church of the Ascension Sunday afternoon for the marriage of Sylvia Shippey and Robert Earl Thomas. The vows were pledged before Rev. Harley G. Smith, rector. The beautiful white satin gown worn by Miss Shippey was designed and made by her grandmother, Madame Babin. It was exquisite in simple princess lines with long sleeves and lace trim. Her veil was a family heirloom of Luxell lace held in place with lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a white prayer book with the white orchids and for "something old" a beautiful rose point handkerchief. Her gift of pearls was a rare collection, having been in the family 200 years. The matron of honor, Mrs. Doris Brient, was accompanied by bridesmaids, Lela Pickett and Mary McMurtrie. Marvin Thomas was his brother's best man and the ushers were Henry and Charles Shippey and Joseph Thompson, ring bearer, Marjorie Ruth Thomas.

A reception was held at the Shippey home immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Shippey chose a gray crepe gown for her daughter's wedding with dusty rose accessories. The Shippeys were assisted in receiving by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Thomas.

The newly weds will be at home at 321 Carter Ave. following a wedding trip to Canada.

CELEBRATE 55TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Funkhouser celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Sunday of last week at their home, 660 Woodland Dr. in Sierra Madre Canyon, with open house for their friends. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck of Long Beach, son-in-law and daughter of the honored couple. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Morrison of the Cooper Arms and Mrs. Perle Mark of the Omar Hubbard, sisters of Mrs. Funkhouser. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Charles Lewis and pouring was Mrs. Verie Funkhouser of Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Funkhouser were married in Park county, Ind., January 28, 1890, and moved to Long Beach in 1907, where Mr. Funkhouser entered business as a painting contractor. Both were active in the First Christian church there for years. They have three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

POLICE BLOTTER

Three Montebello boys were found asleep in a car along Canyon Ave. Boys old enough to fix their own tires went to sleep without calling their parents until amiably asked to do so by a local officer. What are our kids thinking of? They had been there all night and were found in the light of early morning. Too many cars in a yard on Sunnyside Ave. causing too many complaints on account of too many different noises coming therefrom. Former policeman, Jack Winthrop drops in on the night cops in the wee hours of the morning, after having driven day and night from Kansas. Many lights out along streets. Chunn gets another "not a police matter" call. Fixes things up. Somebody gets a thrill out of opening up fire plugs. Some people get a kick out of the damndest things. Local boy gets in the claws of the law in San Pedro. Complaint of smoke coming through windows "There were many smudge pots a'go!" says El Embree. Orange thieves at work. Only got a few before discovered and chased away. Mysterious car in front of house—drove away. Lost dog. Some folks wish they would all get lost and stay lost. Of all things, a fight reported. Fight was over and participants had vanished. Tin cans and bottles dumped in driveway. A burglar locked in the basement of a S.M. Blvd. resident was so well locked up that the cops couldn't find him. Must have been hidin' in back of the cobwebs. A bathrobe out on the line to air attracted the attention of an admirer. The robe is gone. Officer Chunn comes in with a report of the arrival of a new son to him and Mrs. Chunn. With the report came cigars. All doing well. An attempt at lot burning at odd time of day brought a lot of trouble. Lady has trouble with her electric wires. Shocking. Rain causes more of that "car against the curb" trouble. Blasting in the region of Foothill Blvd. arouses much curiosity and many calls to the cops. Cops are called upon to look after the home of the bride while she gets hold of the groom. Newly poured cement damaged by evil-minded culprit. Boy of 14 leaves home in a fit of anger. He returned.

FUTURE FARMERS AT WHITE HOUSE... President Truman shown as he received members of the board of trustees of the "Future Farmers of America." SPOT NEWS PICTURES

THE WINNERS: Greer Garson and Bing Crosby were voted the most popular actress and actor for 1945, in a poll of the nation's fifty-five million movie goers, conducted by Mr. George Gallup's Audience Research, Inc., for Photoplay magazine. The results of the Photoplay poll which were just announced, found Miss Garson and Bing Crosby the people's choice for the second year in succession.

Entertains, Canyon Crest Home Scene of Party

For 25 years a canyon group of women has held a card party. Every month they hold forth at one of their members' homes.

This month it was Sally Dewey's turn to entertain. It's a luncheon. Many of the original group have passed away, owing to circumstances beyond their control.

Sally Dewey, after cleaning every crack and crevice in the house and dusting the footprints that our cat made on the rugs, entertained with simple produce-meats.

Those present were: Mrs. Major Frank Key, Mrs. James Heasley, Mrs. Carol Bradford, Mrs. Roy Parks, Mrs. May Ostrom, Mrs. Ethel Burnham, Mrs. J. E. Culver and Mrs. Hopkins.

Mrs. Dewey gave as a first prize one of Mr. Dewey's famous etchings. The booby prize came from the five-and-ten.

This is Alfred Dewey's version of his wife's party.

Must Our City

really getting a bargain. There are men in this work who are capable of doing mechanical labor that would cost the city of Sierra Madre more than $8515 just for the variation of jobs. Some of these fellows will go from digging a ditch to laying a perfect cement foundation for a new building. In fact, they will build the building. Not only that—they will make a street. They must be ready at all hours to fix a water leak, weld a broken pipe, clear the streets, and many other obligations that require skill that cannot be bought for ordinary labor wages.

If all these things are considered, it will be plainly seen that as taxpayers we have not been overtaxed as far as wages to the city employees is concerned. If it be the desire of the majority of taxpayers to dispense with the cost of employees and eliminate the many conveniences we now enjoy, then that is a different story. We either want these conveniences or we don't. It is time to think things over and decide.

The same situation applies to the police and fire departments. If you ask the Underwriters if you need a fire department, they will say "hell, yes, and how." Well, the average citizen will say neither of these departments ever earn the salt to put on an egg. But still this very citizen hasn't stopped to realize that if these men were not available, his taxes in the matter of fire insurance would double or triple his cost. Here, we have a few policemen who act as firemen, judges, cops, and general go-betweens. The men all want to prepare for the future by joining the proposed old-age security plan, but if the required amount is taken from their checks, they will have very little left to carry on the expense of raising a family. After all, this is one of America's freedoms. All in all, that $8515 that appears on the sheet as being paid by the city is really and truly being paid by the men themselves and, according to justice and reason is long past due. In all fairness, it is asked that the salaries of the city employees be compared to those of other workers, and then having done this, ask yourself, WHY?

In the meantime, let's keep the FIRES OUT, because after all even though there was not a penny in the offering, the Sierra Madre Firemen would do their utmost to stop a fire from spreading. If they didn't $8515 wouldn't begin to support the upkeep of a regular time fire department. 50-0-0-0-0.

field, away from power lines and street traffic.
2. Use cotton cord for the kite string. Never use wire, tinseel or metallic cord—they are conductors of electricity.
3. Be sure your cord is perfectly dry. A wet cord may become a conductor of electricity.
4. If your kite does catch in a power line, let go! Do not pull it. Telephone the company owning the line and a lineman will come to get your kite down in safety.

This is what's behind that CHEVRON SIGN

Lots of folks are curious about our new Chevron Gas Station. So here are the answers to the questions you've been asking—the story of how Standard of California is helping us establish our identity as an independent.

No, when the Chevron sign went up over our gas station it didn't mean that the station had changed hands. The new name, the new paint job are just to establish it as an independent business. Lots of motorists who like the personal service they get at independent gas stations didn't know we are "home-owned." We're taking this means of making the fact plain.

You bet we will continue to handle Standard products. We want to offer our customers the finest. Our service and accessories will be just the same, too.

Sure, we'll honor Standard of California's National Credit Cards. And they're mighty handy when you come in for Chevron Gasolines, RPM Motor Oil and other products and services. Just drop in any time.

REMEMBER...the same products, the same service, the same folks to serve you men to make the presentation of awards among whom were, Bob Green, Roland Brennan, Dr. Morley, Mr. Guthrie, and Dick Lee. The parents were invited to be on the stage with their sons when the honors were bestowed.

Wm. Kinney gave a very inspiring talk, saying Sierra Madre Scouts summed up to developing leaders. There were no underprivileged boys to work for but from the material, leaders were in the making. Burt Noble made a stirring appeal to every one for the "Tear the Shirt Off Your Back" campaign. Europe especially is struggling to re-establish its Boy Scouts and needs Scout uniforms of any description. He asked parents to call any Scout Master or Scout if they have Scout equipment about the house that can be used for Europe.

Awards were made as follows:
Troop No. 1—First Congregational church, Frederic Schwepppe, Scoutmaster; Loren Heasley, senior patrol leader, acting assistant. Merit badge awards—Calvin Floyd, farm home and planning; Nathan Tarr, swimming; life saving; Merritt Williams, athletics, woodworking.

Troop No. 2—Holy Name Society, St. Rita's Catholic church, E. J. Osterman, Scoutmaster. Second-class awards—Jack Peters, James L. Hoag, Richard Kinney, Francis Lu Visi, John Lu Visi, Jerry McGuire, James Rizer, First-class award, Ernest Lu Visi. Merit badge awards—Ernest J. LuVisi, cooking, public health, rabbit raising; Thomas Lu Visi, home repair.

Troop No. 3—Sierra Madre Congregational church, Hans Guthrie, acting Scoutmaster. Second-class award, Ronald McMillan, Merit badge award, Elmer Guthrie, swimming.

Explorer Post, Kiwanis club, Luke Gervin, Scoutmaster. First-class award, Wm. Freeland, merit badge, Ray Hinkley, safety.

SOUND THINKING

There is need for sound thinking in Sacramento. Without it the State reserve funds may soon be dissipated and new laws imposed that will endanger the economic health of California.

After studying the issues now before the Legislature the State Chamber of Commerce expressed its views. One or two of its points are particularly worthy of comment.

The State Chamber urges that the $145,000,000 Postwar Employment Reserve Fund be kept intact. "No unemployment problem now exists," it points out, "and these revenues should be retained to fund for a wide program of public works now would not only defeat its purpose but would intensify the critical shortage of materials and labor so badly needed for home construction. Private industry is working vigorously to meet the housing needs and should not be further handicapped."

The State Chamber also emphasizes that the proposed "California Reconstruction Finance Corporation" to make loans to small business is entirely unnecessary. It would merely duplicate existing private and public agencies now providing ample funds for small enterprise. Aside from having too many government agencies already and not desiring to make the government any more socialistic than it is, the fact is that lending facilities to small businessmen in California are the best in America.

It seems to us, then, that on these issues the Legislature would do well to consider earnestly the points made by the State Chamber of Commerce.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

When President Truman sent his combined "State of the Union" and budget message to Congress it was distinctive in two respects: It was the first time that the two messages were presented to Congress as one and it was exceedingly long.

But aside from these distinctions it contained little that would cause it to be remembered a few years from now or, for that matter, a few months from now. Most of what Mr. Truman said he had said before. And most of what he had said before, especially in regard to new legislation, had met with little response in Congress.

His call for higher production, higher wages and lower prices had a hollow ring to it as it reverberated through the Nation's empty shops and factories where workers have gone on strike for those higher wages and where production has ceased. Through this action we shall certainly not get more production, nor lower prices, and in the final analysis, the time lost in strikes will cut down, rather than increase, the real wages of workers for a long time to come.

To the credit of the President it must be said that he is apparently making every effort to bring the country back to a balanced budget. Whether this is prompted by political considerations—this being an election year—or is born of the realization that the United States simply can't go on spending more than it takes in indefinitely, is not so important at the moment. More important is the real possibility of soon bringing to an end the "dance of the deficit" which has been an outstanding feature on the Washington political stage for the past decade and a half.

If Mr. Truman eventually succeeds in this, both the "State of the Union" and the budget will be greatly improved.

RUSSIAN A-BOMB

It may be that Russia has stolen a march on us and has developed a new atomic bomb that makes ours "obsolete" as Dr. Armatte, the British scientist, reported, but his story about the Soviet A-bomb has generally met with skepticism here in America. One American expert on atomic energy said bluntly that Dr. Armatte's statement sounded like "a lot of foolishness." The Russian bomb is supposed to be the size of a tennis ball and is said to be so powerful that it has a "pulverizing range" of 53 miles. Scientists pointed out that there just isn't that much energy in an atom bomb that size. If Dr. Armatte's report were correct the bomb dropped on Hiroshima would be a firecracker by comparison. American experts believe that it would take Russia or any other country several years to turn out an atomic bomb even if they had all of our knowledge on the subject right now. And we hope that several years hence, international control will have precluded international competition in the production of atomic weapons.

BUILDING THE WEST

It has been conservatively estimated by "Builders of the West" that at least $10,000,000,000 will be spent for new construction in the 11 Western States during the next five years.

On highways alone in the next three years the States are expected to lay out more than $700,000,000. California will lead with an expenditure of approximately $200,000,000. Other States will range from $100,000,000 each for Oregon and Washington down to $20,000,000 for Wyoming.

Emphasis on road construction is a sensible procedure since continued development of the West, and of California in particular, depends heavily on adequate highway transportation. Thousands of Western communities rely entirely on motor transport both for passenger and freight movement. Many large industrial plants handle all their incoming and outgoing shipments by truck.

Other projects slated for the West include large-scale private housing, various public works and extensive commercial and industrial building.

All this construction will provide more jobs for the millions of workers in this area and will make possible the output of more goods and products for the Western, national and world markets. What the West builds, builds the West.

G.I.S GAIN THEIR "POINT"

General Eisenhower's ban on G.I. protest meetings may not please the boys overseas but at least it came after they had succeeded in winning plenty of publicity for their grievances. The chief-of-staff's announcement of a further cut in discharge points appears to have been the result of the "we-want-to-come-home" campaign. Draftees with 45 points or 30 months' service will be back in civvies or on their way home by the end of April. Those with 40 points and two years' service will be released by June 30. To provide replacements for men overseas Senator Johnson of Colorado suggested the drafting of single men up to 45 years of age and a lowering of present physical standards. For occupation duty, he said, the Army needs "mature minds worse than healthy 18-year-olds." The present selective service act expires on May 15 of this year and there is a strong sentiment in Washington not to renew it. Seems that America is having more grief disbanding her Army than she had in raising it.

History of Congregational Sunday School. Water Co. to Meet

A wave of indignation swept over the city when it was learned that a little girl had been brutally beaten by her foster mother.

Monday the Board of Trade will elect officers for the coming year.

There is much excitement over the coming annual meeting of the Sierra Madre Water Co. Every property owner in the city is a stockholder. Interest centers in the election of officers and the question as to whether the affairs of the Company should be turned over to the city. Circulars sent to stockholders object to the sending out of proxies to be filled out in blank and returned to the secretary which gives him a general voting power which is not representative. It was stated that rotation in office with an infusion of new blood would tend toward a more democratic administration.

Thieves broke into the home of Mrs. A. H. Schlichtz on Sunny-side and stole several hundred dollars worth of valuables.

The half-tone cuts for the album of Sierra Madre were destroyed when the engraving company, which was making the cuts, burned.

In 1882 Sunday School was started in the country school house on the Mrs. Borglum property on Live Oak Ave. Four years later the Congregational church was organized and the Sunday School affiliated with that church. Preaching services were also held, members going to Pasadena or San Gabriel for a minister. One member drove to church each Sabbath, taking his wife and child and the family organ. The first year report showed an average attendance of 19.

In 1885 the School moved to the new school building, Baldwin and Central. March 27, 1886 the Congregational Church was organized and the school joined with that church. When the Town Hall was built in 1887 they moved there. January 13, 1889, the little band moved to the library building and later to the Congregational Church. Brothers Gregory and C. E. Cook and Father Camp, former Superintendents, have been called home. Miss Alice Tufts and Converse Twycross filled the offices of secretary and treasurer for years. A. S. Mead was a superintendent for years. W. S. Andrews was the second superintendent. Miss Gertrude Cook was one of the first on the cradle roll. The Church will now build an addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawhurst will present their inimitable stunts at the Town Hall February 11. Mile Modiste will give vaudeville. Mrs. Bannavne will bring out her juvenile players in "Humbug." Duet by Miles, Staples and Rice. Mrs. Stevenson and Janet will play a piano duet. Fanny Newlin will be soloist.

Webster Vannier is able to resume his school work after several months illness.

Work will start on a $4000 house for R. D. Richards on Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Vannier of Buffalo are spending the winter with E. H. Vannier and family, Hermosa.

$130,000 Appropriated for Santa Anita Canyon Road. Death of Ray Grant

An initial appropriation of $130,000 was made by the Legislature for a high gear road from Sierra Madre into the Angeles Forest, to be known as the Santa Anita Highway.

It will immediately open up the beautiful mountain resort country that is accessible only by the picturesque trails to hikers or packers. It will form a loop beginning at Grand View and Santa Anita (Double Drive) through the mountains, terminating in the Arroyo Seco in Pasadena and ultimately making a short route from the San Gabriel Valley to Palmdale and the Mojave desert. A 100 foot right of way has been secured from the Oakwood Syndicate, Lannan and Sartori estates winding 2 1/2 miles through the foothills, making a direct connection with the present road at the Santa Anita dam.

(Editor's note) Evidently funds ran out when the pavement was completed to Chantry Flats, the present end of the road, and the dream of opening up the wonderful country farther on was never accomplished. This might make a fine project for the reconstruction period to complete the proposed road in 1946-7.)

Every householder in Sierra Madre cutting back poinsettia plants this spring is urged to take the cuttings to the City Hall, to be distributed to our citizens to make the city colorful when people flock from all over the world to attend the Olympic Games next year.

Flying club to be organized, sponsored by American Legion. Committee in charge, Norman B. Jensen, Ralph W. Stewart, Chas. E. Taylor, H. C. Stewart.

Dear Prof.: I want to travel all around the world. Got any suggestions?

P. S. I'm the chef at Duffy's Tavern.

Ans.: For you, my friend, I recommend a Cook's Tour.

Dear Prof.: Can't find a jeweler who'll repair my watch. Would you advise me to try it? I'm a pretty good mechanic.

Ans.: You'll find it mighty ticklish.

Dear Prof.: Among all our present-day sins which do you consider the most deadly?

Ans.: Sinatra.

Dear Prof.: Do you think an apple a day keeps the doctor away?

Ans.: Not if you're a good-looking blonde, dearie.

Dear Prof.: Just what is a night club?

Ans.: A place where folks on the loose go to get tight.

Dear Prof.: What's your interpretation of Boogy Woogy?

Ans.: Insanity set to music.

Dear Prof.: I'll bet you don't know what the cucumber said to H. J. Heinz.

Ans.: Bet I do. The cucumber said, quote, "You got me into this pickle, now get me out."

THE ESSENCE OF IT

AROUND AND ABOUT

By EDWARD LLOYD VOORHEES

The Emerald Isle—GHOST OF THE GOLDEN AGE. In a small boat with an outboard motor my boatman and I "putt-putted" down the Shannon from Athlone. It was a beautiful sunny day with puffs of light breeze now and then rippling the otherwise smooth silver of the broad shining waters. My boatman proved to be a pleasant guide, informative but with a sense of the value of silence, and not given to oratory or overstatement. This was the section of Ireland which presented that brilliant operatic tenor and gifted singer of sentimental Irish songs, John McCormack, and soon my boatman was pointing out on the Shannon's right bank, "that little gray home in the west" at or near the tenor's birthplace, as well as the "tumbledown shack in Athlone," whose celebration as sung by their favorite bard never failed to "bring down the house" wherever in America Erin's sons and daughters gathered to listen, weep, and cheer with nostalgia as only that sentimental and warm-hearted people can.

Animal and bird life a-plenty also absorbed our attention in the river and along its banks on both sides—mudcoats, ducks, geese, and swans made the stream and its margin lively, plunger along the fields where cattle and sheep grazed. Small farms and straw-thatched cottages abounded, and at one spot on the bank of the river stood a walled grange shaded by fine trees, wherein lived, my boatman told me, an English colonel and his son who were continually guarded by the Police because the people thereabouts suspected that "they had more than a finger in The Trouble," and now of being "Government spies."

About 13 miles from our starting place we saw ahead of us on the bank a castle ruin of ponderous stone masonry, and a little later the huge ditch which surrounded it, into which legend says the water from the Shannon used to be let in for protection every evening, "until it ran about the hearth." This was our destination—the venerable and long silent remains of Clonmacnoise.

I confess to a spinal shiver of anticipation as I climbed out of the boat upon that soil—partly at the thought of visiting the site of one of the principal landmarks of Ireland's "Golden Age" and partly at the very strange surroundings which faced me, for they gave me the instant sensation of being carried as by the alchemy of enchantment, back the whole 14 centuries in time to that period of rich Celtic ec-the perpendicular spans the horizontal, as well as by certain characteristic protruding ribs and incised designs—there are the two curious round towers of masonry, like prototypes of the great brick chimneys of some modern blast furnaces, but in appearance and in reality centuries older than the oldest chimney of the Industrial Age! The larger tower stands isolated on high ground, is 62 feet high, about 12 feet in diameter, without roof now, but with seven or eight narrow apertures, just below its summit, possibly large enough for a very thin man to squeeze through and certainly large enough to shoot arrows from. Far below is the only floor, narrow and rounded at the top, and the 10 or 12 feet above the ground which is the usual protective feature of old Irish towers.

This tower is believed to have been built in the 900's, is known as "O'Rourke's," and it is my guess that it was used not only as a refuge in case of siege or attack, but as a watch tower from which to detect the approach of pirates or any imminent danger.

Play Safe

WHEN YOU FLY YOUR KITE

There are four rules for safe kite flying. If you follow them, you will have more fun, you will be safer and so will your kite. Here are the rules. Remember to follow ALL of them:

1. Fly kites in an open field, away from power lines and other overhead obstructions.
2. Never use wire, tinsel, or metallic string.
3. Be sure the string is perfectly dry.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Phone the company owning the line, and a lineman will come to get your kite for you.

Interested in Sierra Madre and Temperature Readings

Oregon Finance Company, Medford, Oregon.
Sierra Madre News, Sierra Madre, Calif.
Gentlemen:

I subscribed to your interesting paper some time ago with the intention of learning more about your city. I noticed in your last week's paper that there were two temperature charts submitted, one apparently was for Sierra Madre, the other was for Alta Sierra Madre. As there is a considerable difference in the two readings, I would appreciate an explanation. If it is not too presumptuous for a stranger to express himself, I think that you will be fortunate if your little city is left in that class, and not boomed into a larger and congested place. I am living in a town now where the "hot shots" have really run wild and the congestion, percentage-wise is almost as great as it would be in some big city. Yet we have none of the big cities' advantages.

Small places have the charm and if one really wishes a big place all they need to do is go to one that is already built up. Pardon my digressing.

Sincerely,

W. E. THOMAS,

Manager.

Editor's Note—One of the Temperature charts is taken at Waterworks Park, elevation 694 ft., and the other at the Paul Carter home, elevation 1150 ft. It is interesting to compare them. Last week the temperatures, especially minimum, were much warmer at the higher elevation.

Fine Photographs Presented to the Huntington Library

If any spur to post-war travel is needed, a gift which has been made to the Huntington Library by the Guggenheim Foundation will furnish it. Through the interest of the Foundation 501 photographs of California and other regions of the United States, from the camera of Edward Weston, one of California's finest photographers, are now a part of the Huntington collections. The views of desert, coast-line, and snow-covered mountains will call forth roadmaps and camp equipment.

On a two-year fellowship from the Guggenheim Foundation Weston traveled from 1937 to 1939 through the western states, often camping out, in order to record natural beauties or typical scenes of town, countryside, mountains, sea and city. The result is the series of artistic, photographic impressions which, because of their historical and documentary value, the Foundation has deposited in the archives of the Huntington Library. The majority of the photographs depict scenes of California, from northernmost Del Norte county to San Diego county in the south.

Since the first group of pictures, 142 in number, were placed in the Library other groups have been added from time to time. With the gift now complete in the archives of the Library, officials state that selections from it will be shown to the public in the near future.

Employees at Sunkist headquarters in Los Angeles are good citrus customers; in the past year they purchased over 3300 boxes of oranges, lemons and grapefruit.

California's orange crop in the present crop year is expected to decrease 15 per cent while lemons are expected to be 10 per cent above last year.

Charles the Great sent offerings to support this ancient seat of devotion, of illuminated manuscripts, music, and learning; and here his future companion and great scholar Alcuin came as a youth to learn from the great teacher Colcu. Many are the tombs also of the illustrious dead, and the Donegal Annals record that "interred to the north of the altar"—probably of the "Great Church"—is the body of Conobair, "King of Connaught and of all Ireland, both the Irish and the English, (who in A.D. 1198) died among the canons at Cong after exemplary penance, victorious over the world and the devil." What a grand end was that for Roderick O'Connor, the last king of Ireland!

PASADENA PLAYHOUSE

Basic problem of a post-war world, told in terms of dramatic dynamite, is "Tomorrow the World," the James Gow-Arnaud d'Usseau hit drama, slated for Pasadena Playhouse stage from February 6-17.

War's end amplifies the drama which finds a youngster, Nazi-trained, brought to this country for the duration. The American household suddenly becomes laden with hate, jealousy and terror as the young disciple of Hitler and Co. spreads his poison. The small voice that sings of "Europe today, tomorrow the world" points to the terrifying ideology that must be erased.

PAULEY TO NAVY... Edwin W. Pauley, California oil man, has been named by President Truman to be undersecretary of the navy. Washington reports that he will be named head of the merged army-navy when and if authorized.

THE MASON SWISS BELL RINGERS IN CONCERT

The nationally known Mason Swiss Bell Ringers, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Benard Mason, will present a most unusual and unique sacred concert at the Bethany church (The Little Round Stone Church), corner N. Baldwin and Montecito, Wednesday, February 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The program will consist of familiar hymns and gospel songs played on a large array of musical instruments rarely heard on any entertainment platform. Some of the instruments to be used are as follows: Swiss hand bells, musical glasses, singing saw, golden vibrasaw, the world's largest set of triple octave chimes and the instrument of mystery, "The Victor Theremin." The latter instrument has no keyboard, strings, reeds or pipes and responds to the motions of the player's hands waving over it in space without being touched. This instrument must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

The Mason Bell Ringers have traveled and presented their concerts in almost every State in the Union during the last 14 years. They have appeared in thousands of schools and churches and over many radio stations and have become nationally famous for their interpretation of sacred music on many novel instruments.

There will be no admission charge to this concert but a free-will offering will be received.

Production and Care of our readers and present in this issue the picture of one of our regular contributors, Miss Virginia Miller of Sierra Madre, Calif. Now you can see her, and feel you know her even better. More power to her throughout the New Year.

In a personal interview, we learned that while Miss Miller has three professions besides that of writing, her first adventure in the writing field nearly turned into a complete and permanent "blackout" for her.

It seems she had had a very interesting experience one Halloween night in seeing a lost eight-year-old boy on a lighted and noisy main thoroughfare in Cincinnati, O., crying lustily because he had lost his mother in the crowd, and the child was greatly frightened at all the noise, grotesque and comic costumes. Miss Miller took the child's hand, spoke reassuringly to him, promising to take care of him until Mother came along, and drew him over to the side of a building where they could watch and enjoy the strange moving figures. The child's fears were soon dispelled. He put back on the little mask that had hung dejectedly about his neck and was having a grand time laughing in the other merry makers when the mother soon came looking at the other merry makers. Miss Miller says, "I thought over this incident for some time, feeling it was a perfect example of the foolishness of fear, and decided to try writing a short article around it. The following March the Halloween story was sent to a large publishing company in Boston. Not hearing anything from it for several months,

I completely forgot all about my story. The next September when convalescing from double pneumonia and still very weak, a letter arrived from the publishing company. My nurse happened to be out and thinking it was merely a notice for subscription dues, I casually tore open the letter and a check fell to the floor. "Oh, some mistake surely," but my heart took a lunge and when I read "Enclosed is check for

$3.38. Your article will be published in October Halloween issue," the weakened heart seemed to stand still, everything turned black and I could not utter a sound; for how long I don't know. The second reaction was a genuine case of hysterics, and when nurse returned, she found her patient in complete collapse."

Miss Miller says to all aspirant young writers, "Get a good story first, tell it simply, send off to the publishers whom you think will be interested in it, and don't let your first check stay you, like mine nearly did me."

Miss Miller is particularly interested in the protection and care of all dumb animals, as well as birds, and is ever ready to take up her pen in their defense. She closes a recently published dog article with these lines: "A pup is a baby dog, and if we think of all very young ani-
